

1956

FISM NEWS

THE MARTYRDOM OF JIM ELLIOT

Douglas Murray said, “There are certain moments in history where a flare goes up and for a brief moment you can see where everyone else stands. Look around and don’t forget what you see.”

Jim & Elisabeth

God has entrusted each of us with a unique purpose and role. We honor Him best when we pursue that calling wholeheartedly—not by looking at others, but by watching the Lord. Say yes and change your world.

In John 21, John—the last surviving apostle—alone records Peter's public restoration and recommissioning, showing how his friend embraced Christ's call and answered "yes".

The Setting of John 21

FOSY

When Saying “Yes” Can Change
Everything

John 21

FOSY – Fear of Saying Yes

FOSY is described as a common phenomenon, especially during periods like the start of a new year when personal change is encouraged, and opportunities arise. Stepping outside one's comfort zone, such as fear of judgment or pre-conceived ideas of not being good enough by comparing to others.

The Setting of John 21

1. The prediction of Jesus (21:18–19).
2. The comparison by Peter (21:20–22).
3. The explanation from John (21:23).

Bert & Colleen

Remember, God uniquely designed you for a purpose only you can fulfill. Pursue your race faithfully, and honor Him with the life He's given you.

Reject FOSY – and say “yes” to usability.

Take Home Truths

1. Have you thanked God for designing you uniquely? (2 Cor 10:12)
2. Will you be willing to go out of the way? (Luke 9:23)
3. Are you willing to say yes? (1 Pet 2:21)

FOSY

When Saying “Yes” Can Change
Everything

John 21