

LEARNING THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

MAGNETS THAT DRAW PEOPLE
TO YOUR MINISTRY

ROMANS 12:13; TITUS 1:8; GENESIS 18

Leadership is not about being the best.
Leadership is about making everyone else better.

Three steps to an other worldly experience:

People will desire to return to a place of an unforgettable experience.

THREE STEPS:

1. Identify the bad habits.

10 BAD HABITS

1. We don't greet one another warmly.
2. We don't make friends with strangers.
3. We miss introductions of visitors.
4. We pass judgment before passing compliments.

10 BAD HABITS

- 5. We ignore follow-up with visitors.
- 6. We don't tend the sheep because we are too busy "running the ship."
- 7. We don't pursue intentionality in reaching our community.

10 BAD HABITS

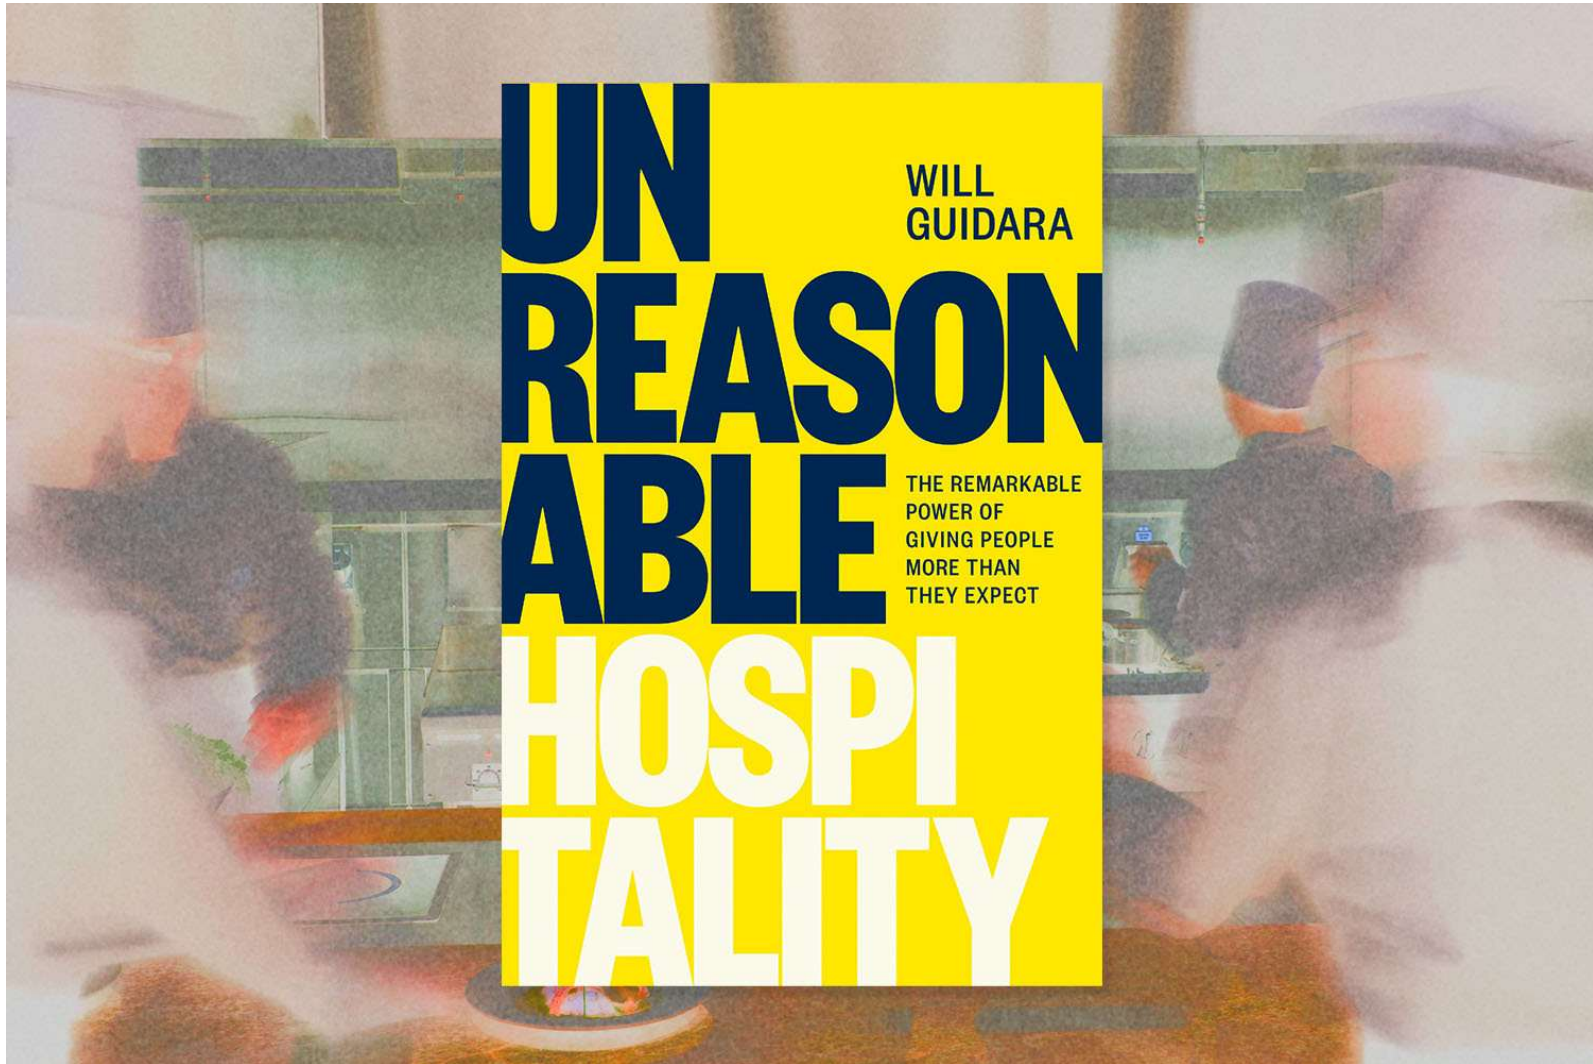

8. We forget names.
9. We don't update programs, we cling to the comfort of the past.
10. We fail to express gratitude.

It's not about what you add, but what to subtract.

THREE STEPS:

1. Identify the bad habits.
2. Understand the power of unreasonable hospitality.

UNREASONABLE HOSPITALITY

1. Priceless food.
 - What you serve.
2. First class service.
 - What you do.
3. Legendary experience.
 - How you make them feel.

The world knows and practices this more than the Originator:
The Scriptures.

THREE STEPS:

1. Identify the bad habits.
2. Understand the power of unreasonable hospitality.
3. Cultivate Christ-like kindness
