Psalm 119

PRAY (vs. 4-9)

Ephesians 1:17-18 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

Luke 24:45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.

Pray

The Bible addresses one problem – sin.

The Bible has one villain – Satan.

The Bible has one hero – Jesus.

The Bible has one purpose – to glorify God.

READ (vs. 5)

1 Timothy 4:13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

John 5:39 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

“A Bible that’s falling apart usually belongs to someone who isn’t.” – Charles Spurgeon

OBSERVE (vs. 6-7)

2 Timothy 2:15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

OBSERVE (vs. 6-7)

2 Timothy 3:14-17 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

APPLY (vs. 8)

James 1:22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

Matthew 7:24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

“This Book will keep you from sin, or sin will keep you from this Book.” –D.L. Moody

How can we know the God of the Bible if we don't know the Bible
of God? *-Adrian Rodgers

Do not expect to master the Bible in a day, or a month, or a year. Rather expect often to be puzzled by its contents. It is not all equally clear. Great men of God often feel like absolute novices when they read the Word. The apostle Peter said that there were some things hard to understand in the epistles of Paul (2 Peter 3:16). I am glad he wrote those words because I have felt that often. So do not expect always to get an emotional charge or a feeling of quiet peace when you read the Bible.

Donald Whitney

By the grace of God you may expect that to be a frequent experience, but often you will get no emotional response at all. Let the Word break over your heart and mind again and again as the years go by, and imperceptibly there will come great changes in your attitude and outlook and conduct. You will probably be the last to recognize these. Often you will feel very, very small, because increasingly the God of the Bible will become to you wonderfully great.

Donald Whitney

So go on reading it until you can read no longer,
and then you will not need the Bible anymore, because when your eyes close for the last time in death, and never again read the Word of God in Scripture, you will open them to the Word of God in the flesh, that same Jesus of the Bible whom you have known for so long, standing before you to take you forever to His eternal home.
