

A sandy beach scene with a blue bucket, a sandcastle, a starfish, a sand dollar, and a red shovel.

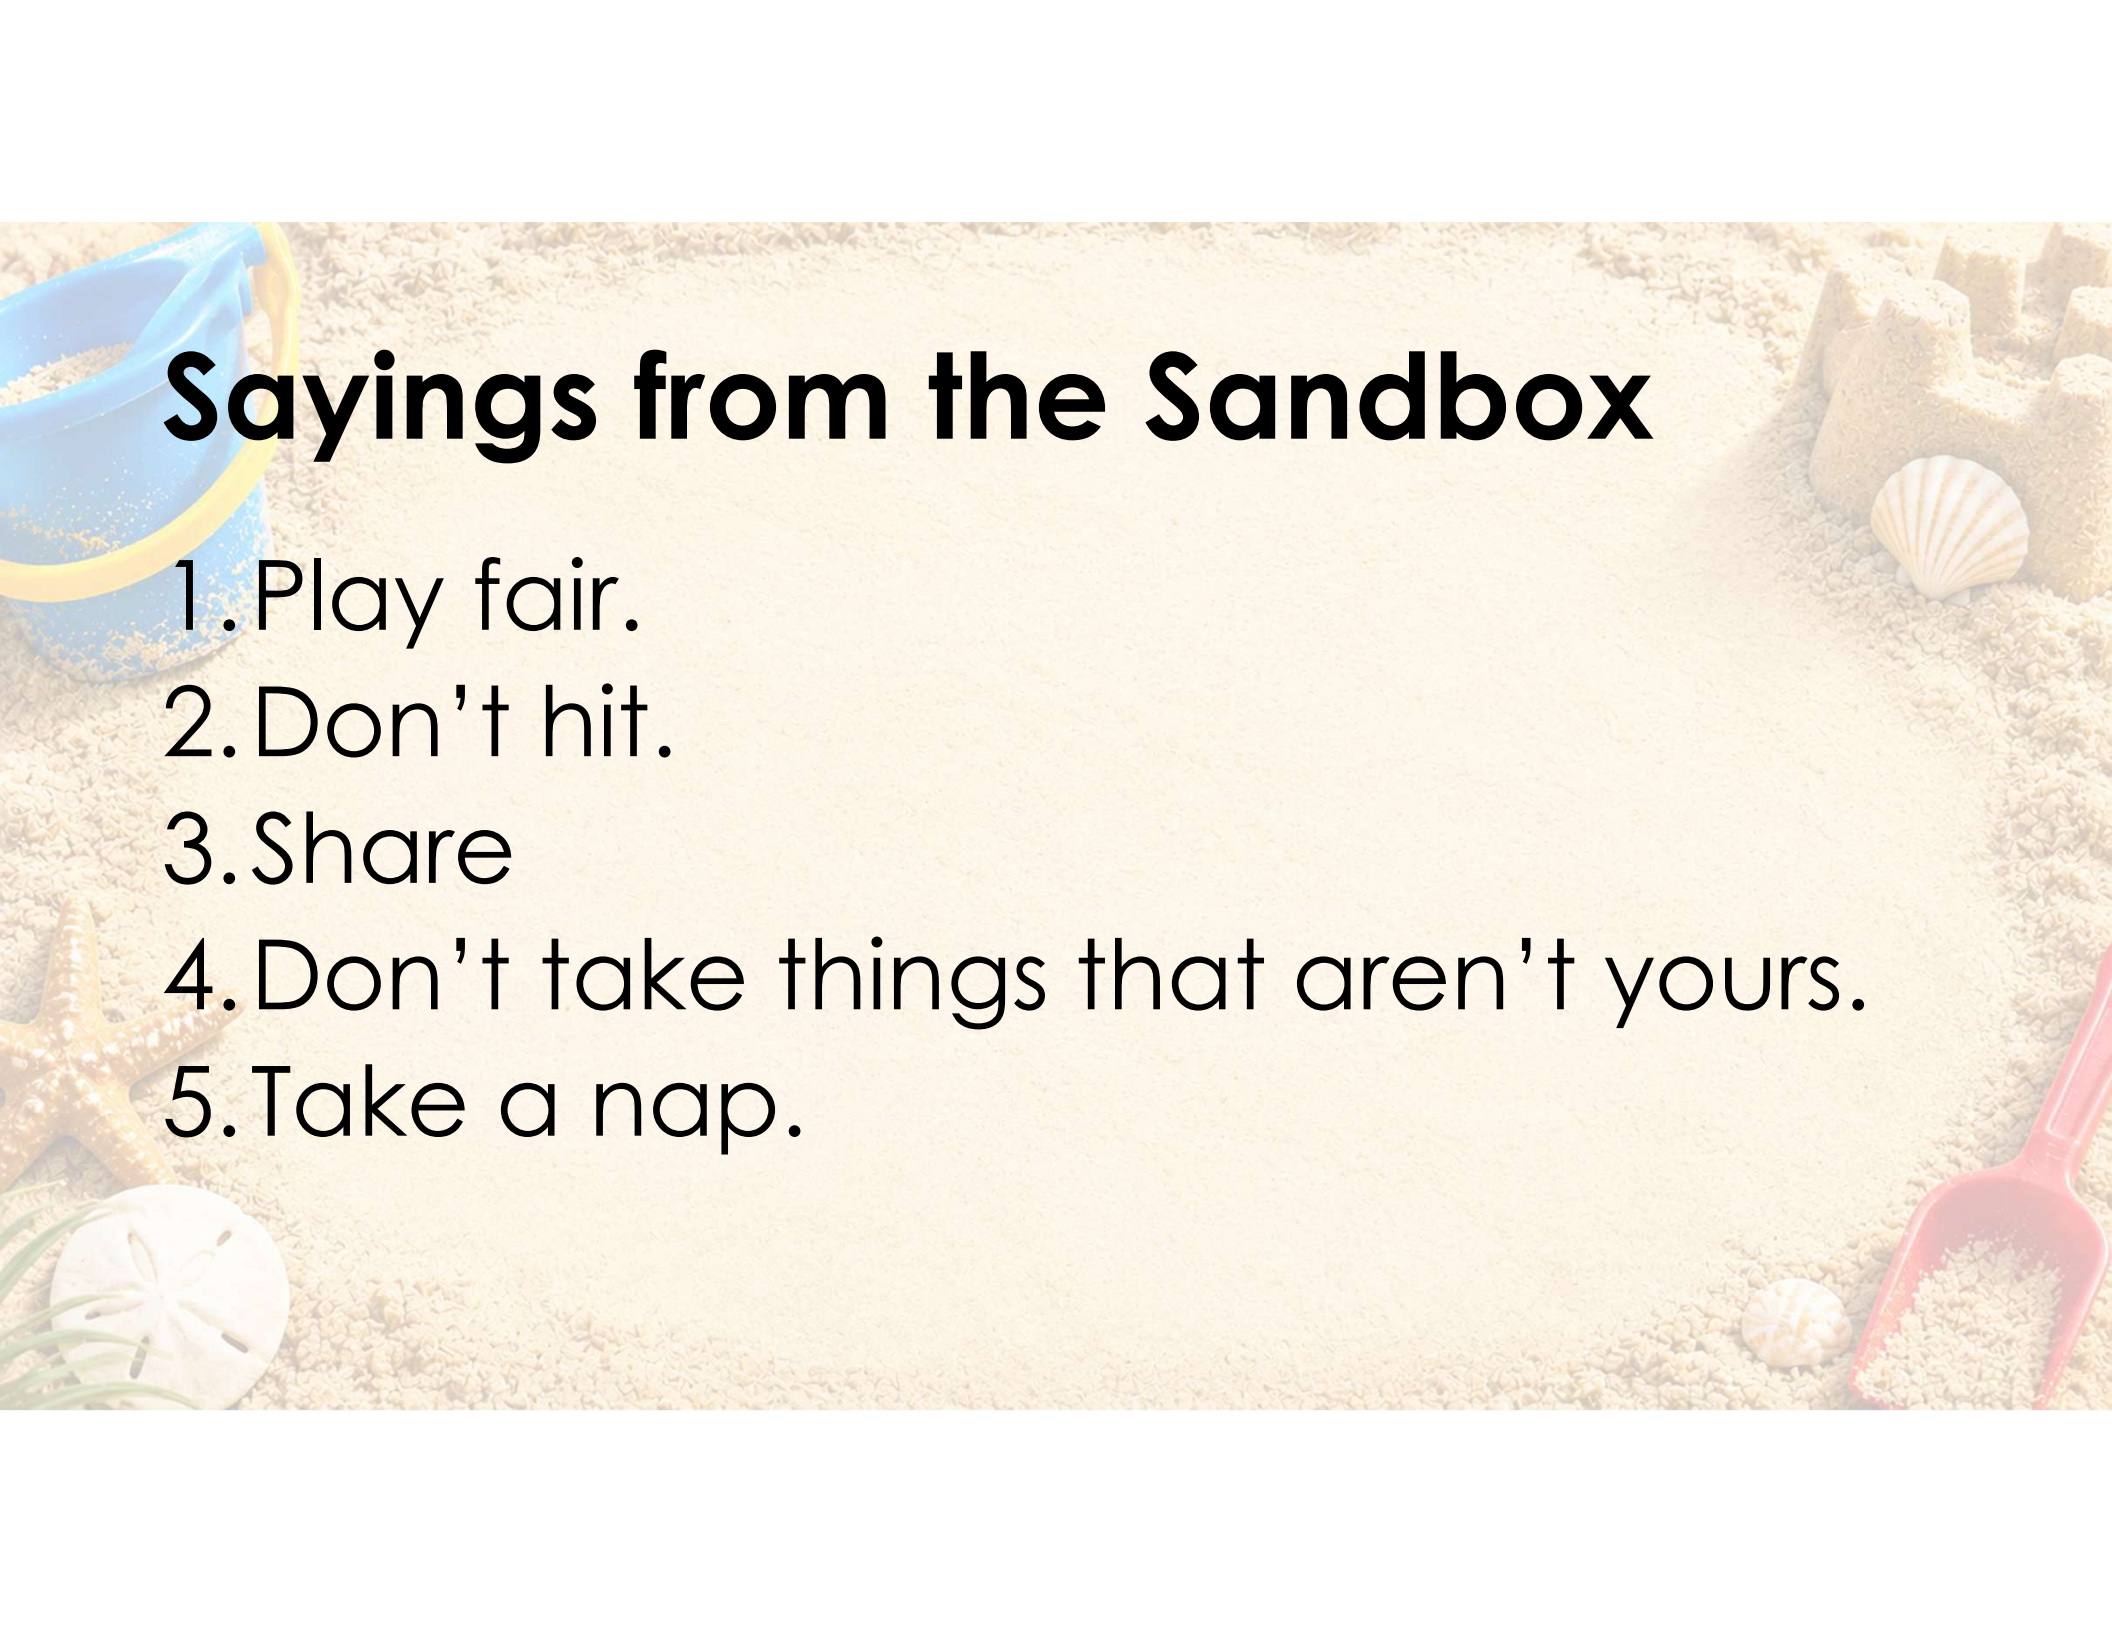

Sayings from the Sandbox

Romans 12:14-21

ALL I REALLY
NEED TO KNOW
I LEARNED IN KINDERGARTEN

UNCOMMON THOUGHTS ON COMMON THINGS

ROBERT FULGHUM

Sayings from the Sandbox

1. Play fair.
2. Don't hit.
3. Share
4. Don't take things that aren't yours.
5. Take a nap.

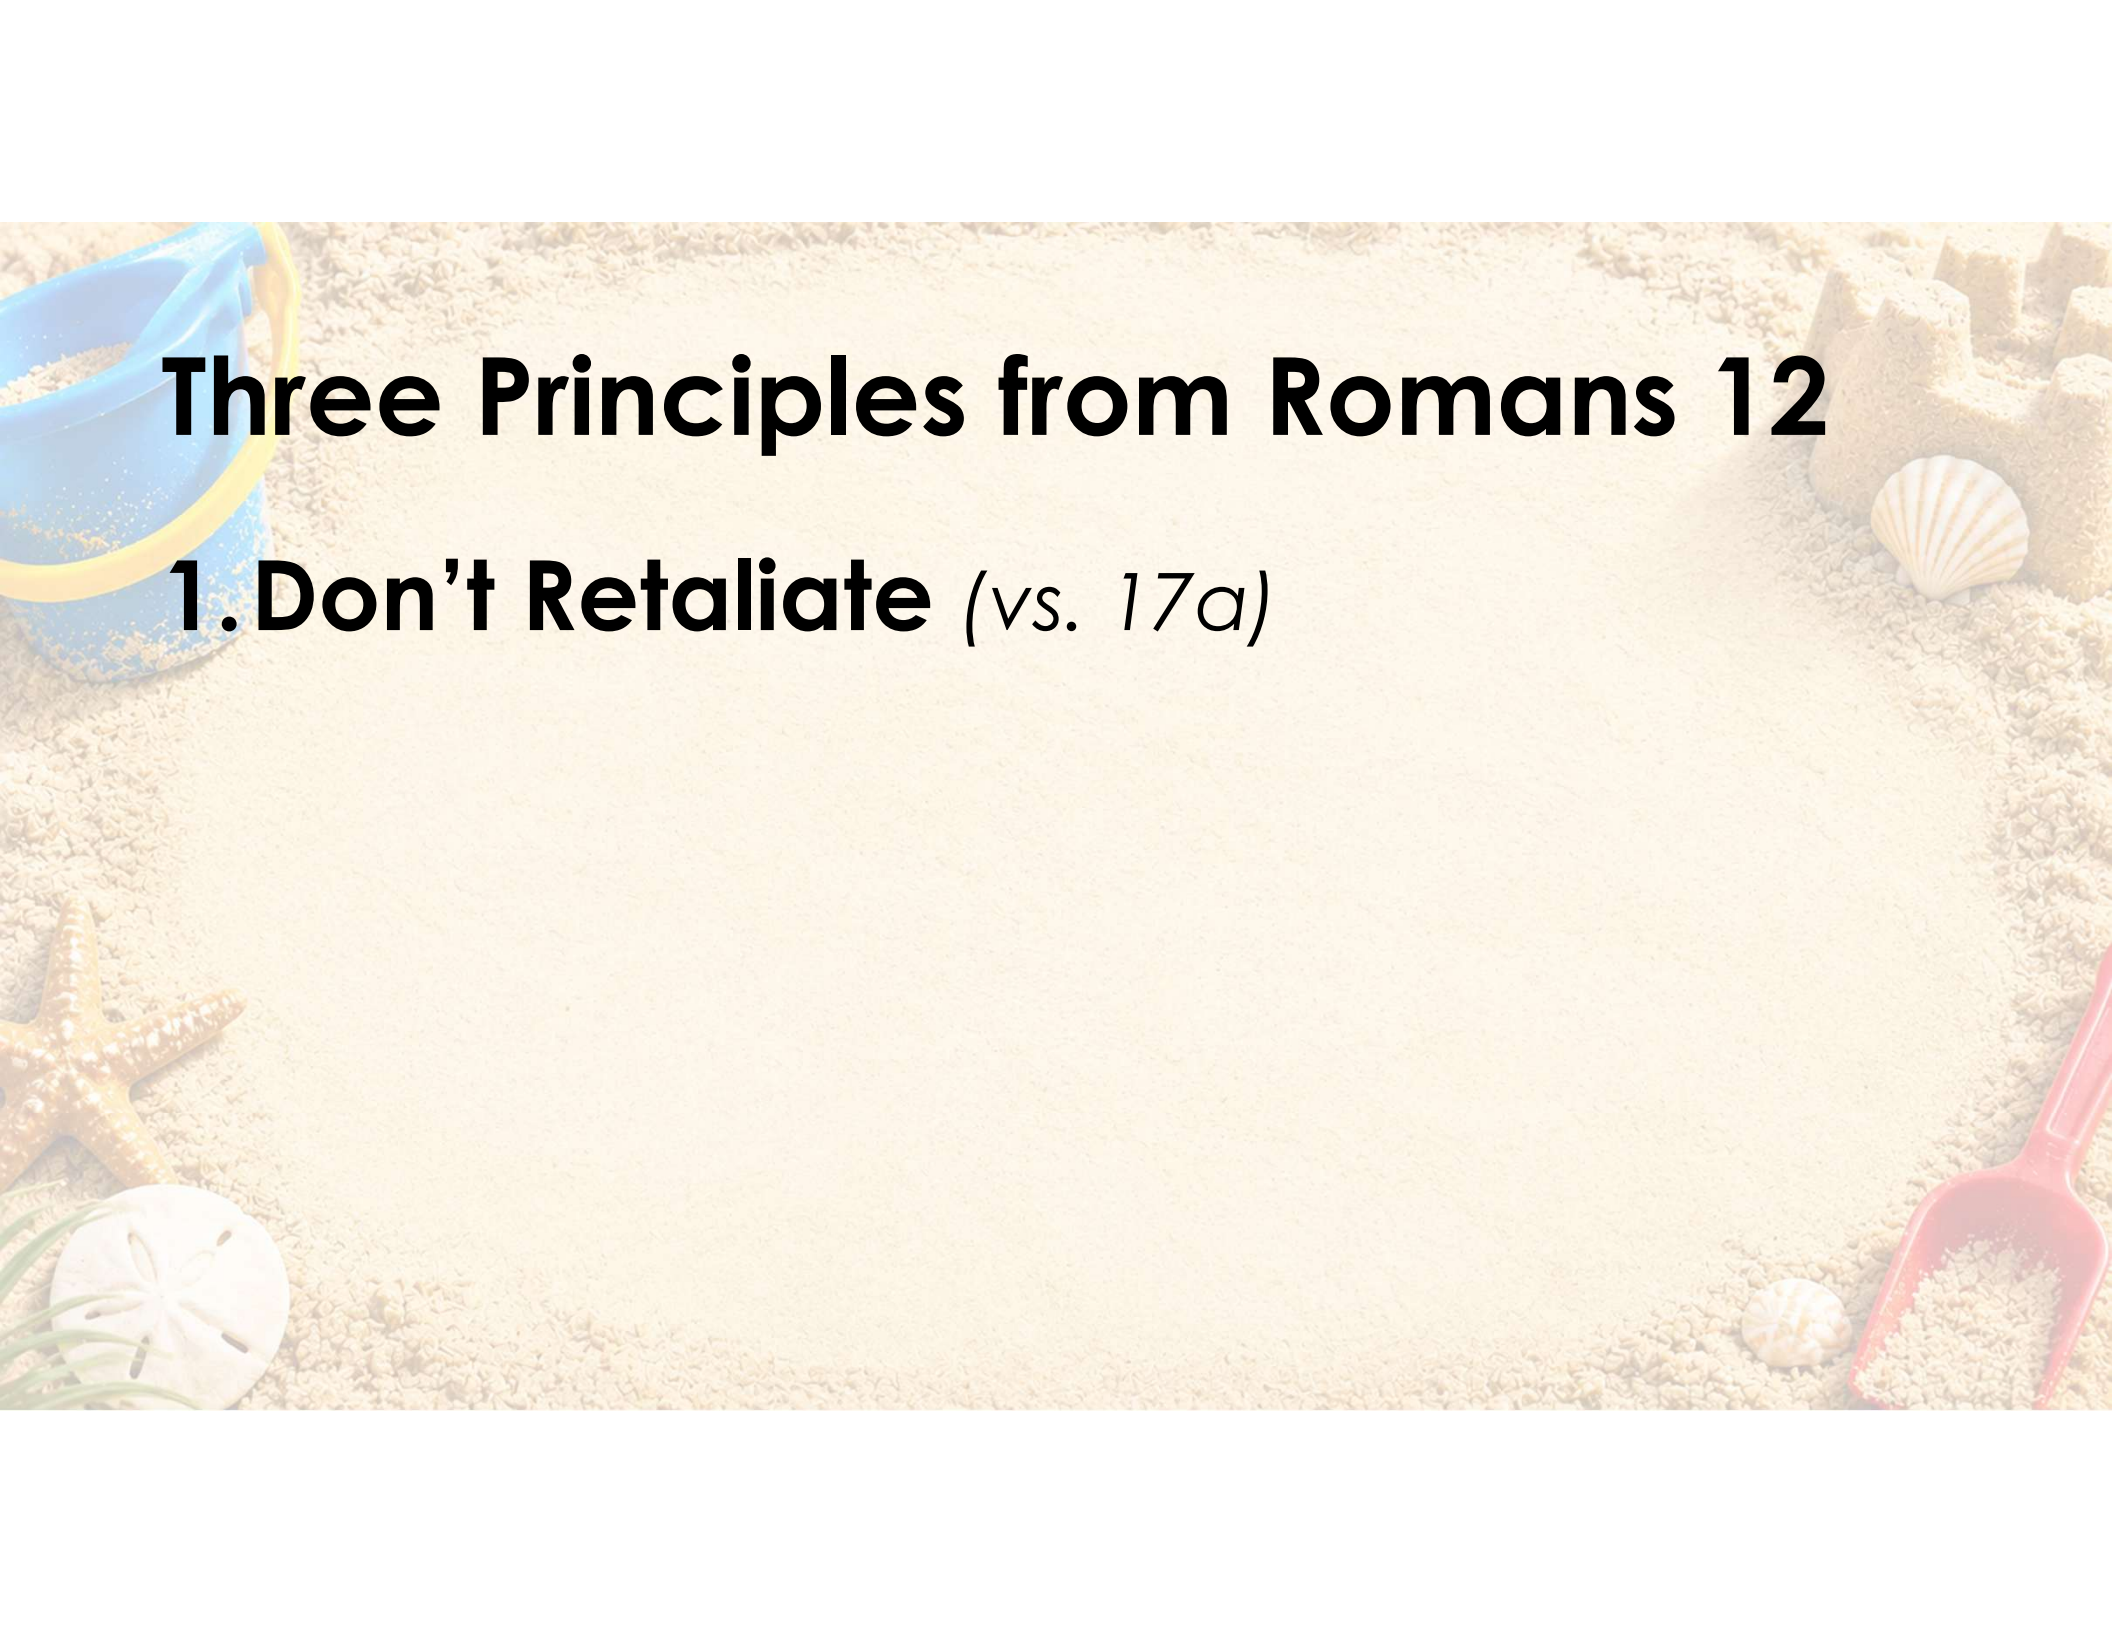

Sayings from the Sandbox

6. Wash your hands before you eat.
7. Put things back where you found them.
8. Clean up your own mess.
9. Tell the truth.
10. Say you're sorry when you hurt someone.

The background of the slide is a soft-focus image of a beach. It features golden sand, several seashells (including a large scallop and a sand dollar), a blue and yellow beach bucket on the left, a red plastic shovel on the right, and a sandcastle in the upper right corner. The overall tone is warm and serene.

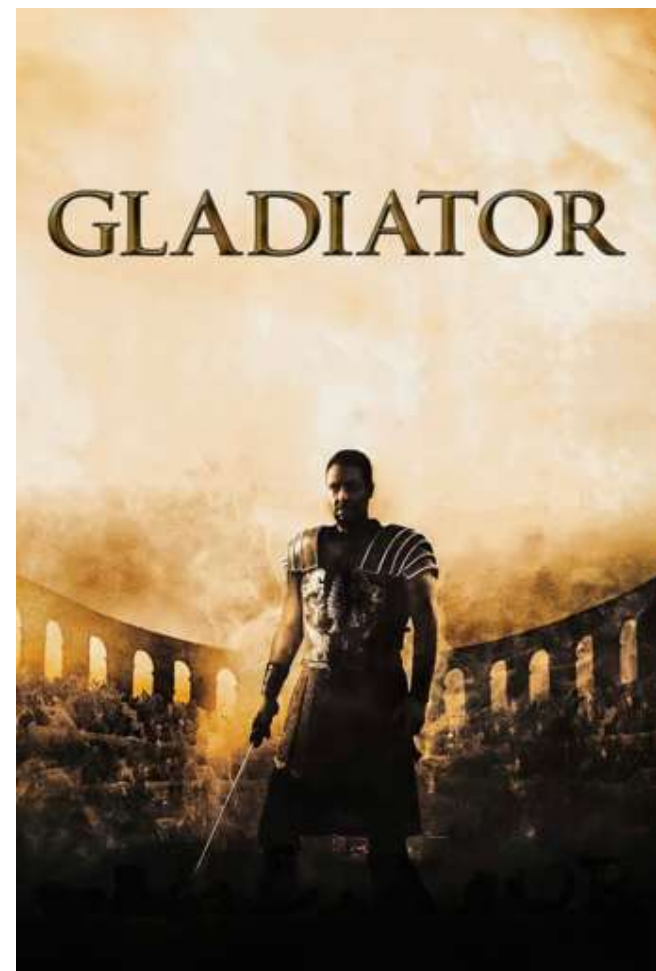

Four Divisions of Romans 12

- 1. Sacrifice on the Altar (vs. 1-2)
- 2. Member of a Church (vs. 3-8)
- 3. Part of the Body (vs. 9-13)
- 4. Citizen of a Society (vs. 14-21)

Three Principles from Romans 12

1. Don't Retaliate (vs. 17a)

The background of the slide is a soft-focus image of a beach. It features golden sand, several seashells of different shapes and sizes, a blue and yellow plastic bucket on the left, a red plastic shovel on the right, and a sandcastle in the upper right corner. A starfish is visible in the lower left.

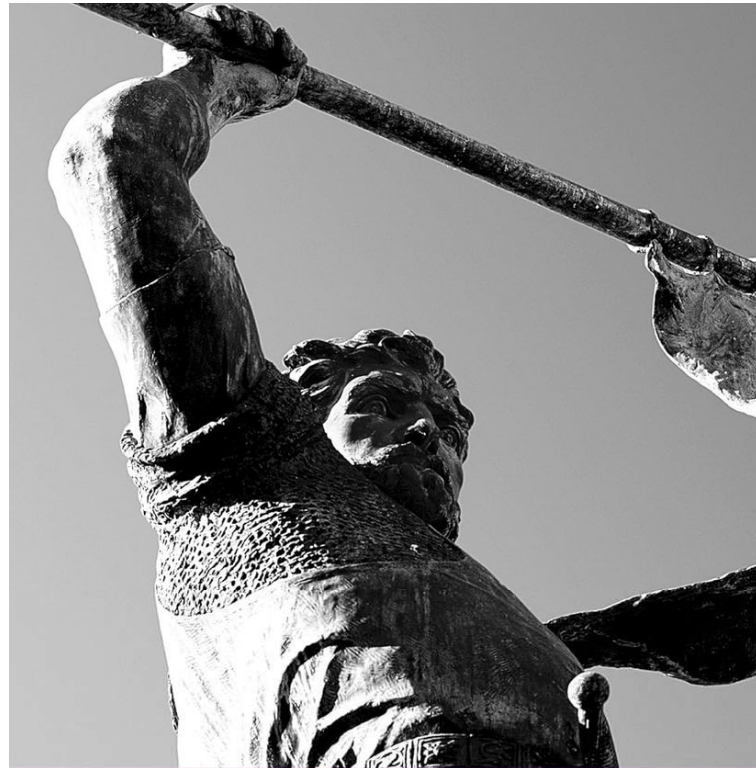

Three Principles from Romans 12

1. Don't Retaliate (vs. 17a)

2. Think Ahead and Do Right (vs. 17b)

- “I will not let any man make me lower myself by hating him” – Booker T. Washington

3. Pursue Peace (vs. 18)

A TALE OF
A study in brokenness
THREE KINGS

Gene Edwards

A sandy beach scene with a blue bucket, a sandcastle, seashells, a starfish, and a red shovel.

Sayings from the Sandbox

Romans 12:14-21